

Cause and Effect: COVID -19 In Our Schools

Deborah C. Boone, Coordinator
Richland County School District One
Columbia, South Carolina

Who We Are and What I Do

- Background on local educational agency
 - 9th largest school district in state
 - Encompass urban, suburban and rural communities -482 square miles
 - 69% African-American
 - Poverty level 76% last school year
- My role in Local Educational Agency (LEA)
 - Liaison mandated by federal law
 - Primary functions/responsibilities

Three Year Trend Data Richland County School District One

McKinney Vento/ PASS Three Year Trend Data

Total Number of School Age Identified

2017-18: 711
2018-19: 734
2019-20: 666

Total Number of Pre School Identified

2017-18: 95
2018-19: 41
2019-20: 71

2017-18: 22
2018-19: 22
2019-20: 20

2017-18: 143
2018-19: 140
2019-20: 163

Total Number of Families Served

2017-18: 381
2018-19: 492
2019-20: 228

2019-2020 School Year

- National emergency
- McKinney-Vento rights and protections
- eLearning
- Challenges and lessons learned

Community Partners

- Local Continuum of Care (CoC)
- United Way
- Social Services
- Salvation Army
- Boys and Girls Clubs
- Local colleges and universities
- Faith based entities

Contact Information

Deborah C. Boone

McKinney-Vento Coordinator

Richland County School District One

1310 Lyon Street

Columbia, SC 29204

deborah.boone@richlandone.org